Arkansas Not Likely to Go Republican

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Democratic Party, despite lukewarm support from Gov. Orval E. Faubus and some other leaders, apparently will carry Arkansas for Kennedy-Johnson ticket in next Tuesday's general election.

Perhaps the fact that no top Democrat has defected in Arkansas is more significant than the absence of rabid support for Sen. John F. Kennedy and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Faubus, for example, while refusing to repudiate a slate of National States Rights Party electors, has said he will vote "a straight Democratic ticket." And the governor sent one of his top aides, Dan Stephens of Clinton, to run the Kennedy-Johnson show in the state.

The States Rights haven't made a big splash. Support for their ticket was urged at two "Southern Patriots" rallies at Little Rock and an out and out States Rights rally is scheduled Friday night in England, but largely the "third party" has set back since it qualified its electors in the ballot with a petition campaign.

Kennedy has three factors working in his favor: the state's traditional Democratic leanings; the fact that a Republican administration sent troops to enforce integration at Little Rock and a Republican civil rights platform which is no more acceptable to most Arkansians than that of the Democrats.

Nixon to South After 'Victory' in New York

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

NEW YORK (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon headed for the South today, jubilantly predicting that President Eisenhower's campaigning for him here Wednesday put the clincher on a Republican victory.

Nixon and Eisenhower left Idlewild Airport within a few minutes of each other this morning, Nixon to continue his campaigning and Eisenhower to return to Washington.

Before his departure, Nixon said that if the tide continues, "I will win by one of the biggest electoral vote victories ever."

Nixon accused his Democratic opponent, Sen. John F. Kennedy, of "whistling in the dark" and "obviously getting panicky" in claiming the Democrats have the edge.

The vice president expressed confidence he will carry New York with its vital 45 electoral votes.

Eisenhower made no statement on his departure.

Kennedy Gets the Largest Arizona Crowd

By GEOFFREY GOULD

ON ROUTE WITH KENNEDY (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy said today Arizona and the nation "are going Democratic next week."

Kennedy told a morning street rally in Phoenix that Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater had wired Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York that Arizona was "in the bag" for the Republicans.

"Judging from the people who turned out here," said Kennedy, "it's a mighty thin bag."

Arizona's largest political turnout of the year greeted Kennedy. There were an estimated 5,000 to 10,000 at the airport, 2,000 at a breakfast and 5,000 at an outdoor speech.

He added that Goldwater's presidential nomination prospects in 1964 may be improved "because we're going to retire Mr. Nixon to beautiful California."

Kennedy struck at the Republican record on conservation and said, "Do you believe the Republican party, committed to no new starts—how can they build Arizona?"

He said dams all over the United States are memorials to Franklin D. Roosevelt, but the memorial to this administration was contained in three words—"No new starts."

Leaving Phoenix Kennedy flew eastward with stops at Albuquerque, N.M.; in Texas and Oklahoma City.

At one point a jet plane swept overhead making it difficult to be heard at the Phoenix rally, and Kennedy looked up and cracked: "All the people are down here, Dick."

He said the administration had failed in the areas of outer space exploration and conversion of salt water into fresh.

"We have to recognize we are face to face with a dangerous adversary," he said, "and unless we move forward what happens to Africa, what happens to the United States, what happens to Arizona? That is the great issue of our time. I ask your help in picking this country up and moving it into the sixties."

At San Francisco Wednesday night, Kennedy amplified on his proposed "peace corps" of smart young men encouraged to join the diplomatic service.

Way Found to Control Hydrogen

By RENNIE TAYLOR

Associated Press Science Writer, BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—A scientific group in this country's hydrogen bomb laboratory today reported what appears to be a real—though short-lived—controlled thermonuclear reaction.

The achievement was officially described as "an encouraging advance" in the quest for a means of producing useful power from hydrogen atom. A successful thermonuclear reactor could produce power from the boundless supply of hydrogen in ocean water.

Announcement of the feat was made by the University of California's Livermore Laboratory. At the same time Dr. Frederic I. Coenegen, research team leader, reported it to a meeting of the American Physical Society in Gatlinburg, Tenn.

With a system of powerful magnets, Dr. Coenegen and associates squeezed a cubic inch of hydrogen until it reached a temperature of 35 million degrees centigrade—60 million degrees Fahrenheit.

In that state some of the hydrogen atoms presumably fused together in pairs and formed a light variety of helium, with the production of a cloud of neutrons and a release of more than three million volts of electrical energy per atom as by-products.

The reaction lasted one-thousandth of a second, Dr. Coenegen said. This represented the amount of time that power was produced. Although far too short to be practical, the production interval was much longer than anything of the kind heretofore reported.

Mostly the experiments on thermonuclear reaction have involved time lapses of only a few milliseconds of a second.

New Satellite May Be Best Sent Up Yet

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A 90-pound "spinning top" satellite whirled into orbit today to begin the most extensive study ever to give scientists a better understanding of the mysterious electrically charged ionospheric layers which reflect radio signals back to earth.

The experiment could lead to improved communications between continents, ships and planes. It also could open the way for more effective contact with communications satellites like the recently launched Echo and Courier and with future manned space craft.

An official of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported the successful orbiting of Explorer VIII gives the United States a commanding edge over the Soviet Union in exploration of the ionosphere.

Robert Bourdeau, head of the ionosphere branch of NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center, said published reports indicate the Soviet Union has been probing the ionosphere with rockets and until today was considered even with this country in data gathered from this sea of electrical particles which extends from 50 miles to about 1,000 miles above the earth's surface.

A powerful 76-foot Juno II rocket blasted off from this missile test center at 12:23 a.m. today. Its four stages fired with clock-like precision and boosted the payload to necessary orbital speed of more than 18,000 miles an hour.

Two hours after launch, ASA announced the "spinning top" was in orbit. It is so nicknamed because it is shaped like a child's top and spins during flight for stabilization. It is 30 inches in height and diameter.

The satellite spun into a path with an apogee—farthest point from the earth—of 1,450 miles and perigee—closest point—of 215 miles. This is fairly close to the intended orbit of 200 to 1,000 miles. Each pass around the world takes 112 minutes.

Officials reported the payload's transmitter was working fine. Explorer VIII is the 26th earth satellite successfully orbited by the United States in less than three years. The Soviet Union has launched six into orbit.

Fiddler succeeds Edwin Fultz of Little Rock, who resigned.

Board Paroles Slayer, Rapist

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Parole Board Wednesday paroled 30 prisoners, including Albert Copeland, 40, sentenced in Drew County in 1945 to life imprisonment for rape of a 14-year-old girl.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus reduced the sentence to 45 years in 1958, making Copeland eligible for parole this year.

Also paroled was Marvin Kidwell, 37, sentenced in Desha County in 1953 to 21 years for a second degree murder. He pleaded guilty to killing another man during an argument.

Arkadelphia Plant Will Close Down

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP)—Reynolds Metals Company's aluminum reduction plant at Arkadelphia probably will be closed early in January because the industry is in a temporary position of oversupply.

Of the plant's 340 employees, 270 will be left without work. A company spokesman said Wednesday that, except for a casting operation employing about 70 persons, the plant would shut down Jan. 5 "unless the national business situation improves before the end of this year."

The Reynolds spokesman said manufacturing costs here are higher than in other plants. He added that the economic squeeze "is not a local situation. It is nationwide."

The Arkadelphia plant began production in 1954.

The plant makes metallic aluminum oxide by an electrolytic process.

It is one of 34 Reynolds Metals plants in the nation, only a few of which are for aluminum reduction.

Catastrophe Is 2nd One Within Month

CHITTAGONG, Pakistan (AP)—Four thousand more persons reportedly were killed Monday by a cyclone and tidal wave in the Chittagong area of the Bay of Bengal coast.

It was East Pakistan's second such catastrophe within a month. A cyclone and tidal wave on Oct. 10 killed an estimated 8,000 persons on islands off the coast.

The first semi-official assessment of Monday's storm damage was announced today. Deaths and damage have not yet been reported from the islands wrecked by the previous storm.

The governor of East Pakistan, Lt. Gen. Azam Khan, said he saw "innumerable dead" during a helicopter flight over the stricken area.

On the island of Kutubdia, the said, officials told him 1,000 people were killed Monday. Azam Khan said a 20-foot wave submerged the island for about 45 minutes and some places remain inundated.

He said, according to officials, 170 boats carrying passengers and cargo were lost without trace, and about 100,000 people are homeless and living in the open.

Jury to Get Murder Case During Day

MOUNTAIN HOME, Ark. (AP)—The first degree murder trial of Mrs. Naomi Shinn for the slaying of her policeman lover last June 16 may go to the jury today.

The trial reached its climax Wednesday when Mrs. Shinn testified that she shot 47-year-old Francis Hultman after he had beaten her and she advanced on her with a hunting knife.

She said she and Hultman got into an argument in their fishing resort cabin the day after they arrived from Kansas City, where both lived.

The prosecution wound up its testimony Wednesday. Four doctors testified Wednesday for the defense. One said Mrs. Shinn, 47, appeared to have been beaten on the day of the slaying.

Dr. M. C. Williams of Kansas City said the woman had received shock treatments for mental illness several years ago, that she had an ulcer and was a "very unstable individual."

Mrs. Shinn's husband, William B. Shinn of Kansas City, testified Wednesday that he had known his wife was having an affair with Hultman at one time but said he thought it had ended in 1955. He said the first he knew of the affair's resumption was when his wife telephoned him from Hattiesburg, Miss., after the slaying.

Mrs. Shinn testified Hultman attacked her after they quarreled. "I was sure he was going to kill me," she said.

The jury of five women and seven men has been qualified by the state for possible infliction of the death penalty.

Tide Hits Italy

BOVIGO, Italy (AP)—Ten thousand residents of the Podolia lowlands were evacuated today as a flood tide rushed through a 400-foot break in the big river's dikes and poured over thousands of acres of farmland.

Firemen and troops rushed from Rovigo, Mantua, Padua and Ferrara in an attempt to throw up an emergency dike.

Rephan's Buy Out the Busy Store Chain

Ed T. Rephan, Hot Springs, has announced that he and his son, Bernard, have recently purchased all outstanding corporate stock of Busy Department Stores, Inc. At present there are three stores owned by Busy Department Stores located in Brinkley, Russellville and DeWitt, Ark.

Many old settlers in Nevada and Hempstead Counties may recall when there were Busy Department Stores in Hope and in Prescott.

For the present, these three stores are to continue operating under the trade name Busy Department Stores. All managers and store personnel who have been associated with these stores will continue under the new ownership.

This brings to 12 the number of stores operated by Rephan's. Other towns in which they have stores are Hope, Prescott, Mena, Malvern, DeQueen, Ashdown and Hot Springs, Ark.

Mr. Rephan said this expansion is further evidence of his belief in the future of Arkansas and the fine people of the state. He noted that despite grumblings and complaints heard occasionally, it is his belief that Arkansas is on the move and he is happy to keep pace with the fine people of the state.

New Round Ordered in Vote Dispute

LONOKE, Ark. (AP)—A new round of hearings is scheduled in the Screeton-Gunter election contest still in the 19th Senatorial District, but they won't begin until after the Nov. 8 general election.

Circuit Judge W. J. Waggoner Tuesday reversed an Oct. 26 order dismissing the suit filed by J. T. Gunter of Austin challenging the outcome of the Aug. 1 Democratic primary election in which state Sen. Jerry J. Screeton of Hazen was the apparent victor.

Waggoner said he would find another judge to preside over the case.

The effect of Waggoner's ruling after a brief hearing Tuesday is to return the case to its status prior to his dismissal order.

Waggoner said he reversed his decision because of an apparent misunderstanding between attorneys for the two sides on entering Lonoke County vote totals. In dismissing the suit, he had said that Gunter's lawyers had not entered in the record vote totals from 27 unchallenged Lonoke County precincts and he therefore had no basis for a decision on the merits of the case.

Screton's name will appear on the Nov. 8 ballot in the district's four counties since certified vote totals made him the victor.

He will face write-in opposition from Charles L. George of Cabot.

Should Screeton be elected and Gunter later be upheld in his contest suit, the office would be declared vacant and a special election called to fill it.

Gunter filed suit challenging votes in Prairie County, Screton's home. Screton in reply challenged votes from Gunter's home Prairie County.

Corn Production Almost Record

BOONEVILLE, Miss. (AP)—The golden acre on Paul Ratliff's farm yielded 295 bushels of corn this year, a little more than nine bushels less than the world record claim.

Prentiss county agent W. T. Smith said the yield this year was harvested by Ratliff's son, a 4-H Club member, Lindon's older brother, Lamar, set the high mark of 304.39 bushels an acre in 1955.

Menu for local schools for the week of Nov. 7-11:

Monday — Roast Pork in brown gravy, cornbread dressing, buttered English peas, bread, butter, chilled peaches and milk.

Tuesday — Cream of tomato soup, crackers, peanut butter sandwich, green salad, fruit, colander and milk.

Wednesday — Hamburger on bun, blackeye peas, sliced onions, carrot sticks, fruit, cup and milk.

Thursday — Chicken pie, green beans, buttered rice, hot rolls and milk.

Friday — Baked Macaroni with cheese, vienna sausage, coleslaw with pineapple, bread and butter, brownies and milk.

Brookwood Brownie Troop 14 Meets

Brownie Troop 14 of Brookwood had their regular meeting Thursday, Oct. 27, at the Little Hut. Beverly Heison was hostess for the meeting and she served cupcakes and cold drinks to the 12 girls present and their leaders, Mrs. Fred McElroy and Mrs. Phinis Hering. After working on their project the girls enjoyed games outside.

Glanis Wood will be hostess for the next meeting.

Miss Sharon Bachman Entertained With Coffee

Mrs. Fred Smith entertained with a morning coffee on Nov. 1 for Miss Sharon Rae Bachman, bride elect of Airman 2c Charles Billings. The honoree, who wore a green tulle dress, was presented a bronze chrysanthemum corsage. She also received a gift of crystal.

What to Do When Husband Turns Frigid

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

I have a husband who is living yet dead. He's a good provider but all he does otherwise is eat, work and talk unions. He was a fair lover until a few months ago when we married but now he never says "this looks nice." "That tastes good." He never kisses me; he holds still while I kiss him goodbye for work.

We have a new house but it's not a home because my husband wants everything perfect all the time. I'm just a servant and would trade everything for a one-room shack and a man who has love in his soul. My husband never pays any attention to our boys except to gripe. They hate to see him come home. So do I.

How can a big, intelligent, good-looking man be so ignorant as to expect respect when he gives us only clothing and shelter? It is breaking my health down, this longing for a little love and affection. —Lonely Wife and Sons

Dear Lonely Wife and Sons: Some men become selfish once they snare a wife. Yours sounds as if he needed a jolt or two. Why kiss him? If he doesn't kiss you? Surprise him by taking a week-end off with your boys, even if it's only a bus ride to the next town. You'll have his attention from then on.

Dear Helen:

Eight years ago my husband and I met a couple with two little girls. When the older child was seven, I found, after a visit from them, that a piece of jewelry was missing. I wrote the parents asking if she might have taken it. The father returned it, with a handful of jewelry I never knew was gone.

The same problem confronts me again—this time with the younger child. I placed my wedding ring in a box inside my jewel case as a reminder to have it returned.

Relations of Races Better, Mitchell Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell reported today the country has made "genuinely significant" progress in closing the economic gap between its Negro and white citizens.

Mitchell presented to the White House a Labor Department study of Negro gains in income, education, home ownership and job status.

Average earnings of nonwhite men have risen from 41 per cent of those of white workers to 58 per cent in the past 20 years, the report showed.

Over the same period, the percentage of Negroes in professional and skilled work doubled. Mitchell said President Eisenhower in a letter accompanying the report. However, the secretary said the report reveals that Negro unemployment rates remain disproportionately high because fewer Negroes have acquired high skills.

He noted that in several other respects — including substandard housing and "seriously impaired" access to public accommodation and transportation — the economic condition of Negroes needs much improvement.

Actress Is Better

LONDON (AP) — Actress Elizabeth Taylor returned to her hotel penthouse suite today, three days after she was admitted to a hospital suffering from virus fever. A close friend had said she was feeling better.

George Weiss Has Quit the Yankees

NEW YORK (AP) — George Weiss quit today as general manager of the New York Yankees, effective on Dec. 31 of this year. He said he would remain with the club in an advisory capacity.

No mention was made of his successor although it has been reported that Ray Flannery, former general manager of the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh clubs, would take over. He has been Weiss' assistant the past two years.

The move has been long anticipated, ever since it became known that the Yankees had adopted a new retirement policy which inactivates an employee who has reached his 65th birthday. That was the reason for the dismissal last month of the 66-year-old Casey Stengel, its manager. Weiss passed his 65th birthday last June.

our sister southern states in the fall to Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956.

On the state level, Henry M. Britt, the Republican candidate for governor, has staged the most active campaign effort since the Republicans made a spirited effort to capture the state's highest office with Pratt Rummel in 1954. Britt has campaigned in all sections of the state but Faubus, the Democratic nominee, apparently is not worried. Faubus made what he called a one-shot campaign speech last Friday night, but he scarcely mentioned Britt. He devoted most of a 30-minute television appearance to endorsing the three proposed constitutional amendments and a minimum wage referendum.

The amendments, Nos. 50 and 52, were placed on the ballot by the 1959 General Assembly. The minimum wage proposal, Initiated Act No. 1, was referred to a vote through a petition campaign staged by organized labor.

Sen. John L. McClellan, who had no opposition in the Democratic primary, and Rep. Dale Alford (the Fifth District congressman) have written opponents, but neither is considered a serious threat. McClellan's foe is Marvin Fuchs of Havana, who has limited his campaign to occasional statements. Alford is opposed by L. J. Churchill of Dover, whom the Republicans tried to nominate by convention after leaving the nomination open in the primary. Secretary of State C. G. Hall refused to place Churchill's name on the ballot on grounds that he was illegally nominated and Pulaski Chancery Court upheld Hall.

Reps. B. C. Gathings, Wilbur Mills, Jim Trimble, Oren Harris and W. F. Norrell are unopposed.

Most interest at the state level has centered on the amendments and the minimum wage law.

The principal political activity has been against the minimum wage law, against Amendment 52 and for Amendment 51.

Amendment 52 is the so-called school closing amendment and the list of organizations opposing it is more than a foot long. The range from the Arkansas Education Association down to local school boards, Faubus and segregationist groups have endorsed it.

Besides the backing of Faubus

Amendment 51, which would liberalize taxing powers of cities, has the backing of the Arkansas Municipal League and various civic groups. City governments, of course, are almost unanimously behind it.

The Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation and an organization called the Arkansas Progress Committee have been bombarding voters with newspaper advertisements and broadcast announcements against the minimum wage law. Proponents of the measure have staged a relatively mild campaign.

Interest in Amendment 50, which would permit salary increases for elected officials in city, county and state governments has drawn little attention. Faubus endorsed it but said he was not personally interested in a raise.

The Arkansas Sheriffs Association has put on a mild campaign for it. There is no vigorous opposition.

On the county and local level, Democratic nominees are unopposed in most instances. The Republicans have three candidates for county office in Garland County and partial to full stakes in several north Arkansas counties. Some Republicans may win in the north Arkansas races.

Board Aims Release of Kidnap

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval B. Faubus and the State Parole Board today discussed the case of convicted Arkansas murderer Curtis Lee Jones who is accused of another murder and a long string of other crimes after being released from prison Sept. 10.

Faubus said he and the board members agreed that communication and parole requests would get closer scrutiny hereafter.

He said the incident pointed up the need for more caution on the part of local officials to protect any paroles for persons they knew shouldn't be out of prison.

"This is not an attempt to pass the blame on to them," Faubus said, "but we don't want them to hesitate to let us know any information we should have."

Faubus last year reduced Jones' life sentence to one of 50 years. The parole followed.

Jones was convicted at Texarkana in 1943 of shooting another man in the head and leaving him

Margaret Boycotts Parliament Opening

LONDON (AP)—Salons and salons buzzed today with the report that a plucked Princess Margaret boycotted Britain's state opening of Parliament.

Humors flew across tea cups and beer mugs that she stayed away from the glittering occasion because there was no seat of honor for her husband Anthony Armstrong Jones.

A Clearance House spokesman confirmed that Margaret had no public engagement, but added: "She may have had a private one, of course."

Asked whether there was any significance to Margaret's absence, the spokesman replied: "Absolute nonsense."

to the. Jones was caught Tuesday near Laredo, Tex.

Today was the regular date of the Parole Board's monthly meeting.

Plane Pilot Near End of Eligibility

WASHINGTON (AP)—The pilot of a plane which crashed near Toledo, Ohio, with 22 deaths last weekend was using a pilot rating that had been ordered revoked but was still valid pending appeal, officials reported.

The Federal Aviation Agency announced Tuesday it had issued an order last July 15 revoking the airline pilot rating of Donald L. J. Chesher, the pilot who was killed with 21 others in the Arctic-Pacific Airlines plane crash.

Chesher appealed the FAA order and it was stayed pending a decision by the Civil Aeronautics Board, which held a hearing last Aug. 23. James Springer, president of the airline, said the fatal flight was the first assigned to Chesher since the hearing.

Charges on which the FAA based its action against Chesher included flying more than the legal limit on hours, failure to maintain proper records, and listing as copilot on two flights a man who was not aboard the plane. FAA said it made a finding that Chesher had demonstrated a lack of care, responsibility and judgment required of an airline pilot.

Whale Pounds Self to Death

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — A determined whale butted itself to death on the rocks of a breakwater 200 feet off shore Wednesday.

Lifeguards tried to push it into deeper water, but the 9-foot, 650-pound pigmy sperm whale persisted in futile assaults on the rocks.

Hope Star SPORTS

Picks Conway to Beat Hope by 20 Points

By WICK TEMPLE Associated Press Staff Writer

It's the haves against the have-nots this week in the Big Nine Conference and generally that way in Class AA. Little Rock Central, El Dorado and Fort Smith are heavy favorites to win Big Nine games.

Pine Bluff and Texarkana get the nod in non-league action.

Camden is favored to wrap up the Region 4AA championship in a home game with Smackover. But the Bucks are given a fair chance of an upset.

There are no other vital games in the top two classifications. The only Big Nine contest with bearing on the lead is the Central-North Little Rock tiff and a Northside victory is highly unlikely.

Region 3AA awaits next week's Conway-Benton title match. In 4AA, leading Stuttgart begins a three-game countdown to the title against comparatively easy foes.

Rogers, already the 1AA champion, faces Berryville in a non-league outing.

Here's the week's outlook: El Dorado 27, Blytheville 6. Wildcats feasting. Hog last week. Chick this time.

Central 33, North Little Rock 6. Over the river and through the tennis. Fort Smith 21, Hot Springs 0. Trojans offer no threat.

Pine Bluff 28, Crossett 7. If the Zebras aren't too intent on next week's showdown with Central, Texarkana 6, Idabel 0. If the Hogs can't win this one...

Van Buren 7, Fayetteville 0. Pointers have been improving while Fayetteville has gone downhill.

Harrison 12, Huntsville 0. Just another A opponent for Gobblins. Rogers 27, Berryville 7. Why slip now?

Subiaco 13, Springdale 7. A good one piling sometimes-tough teams.

Forest City 20, Jonesboro 14. Grudge match between bloody rivals.

Idelena 32, West Memphis 6. But it won't do the Indians any good.

Stuttgart 26, Marianna 0. Rice birds on their way in.

Benton 19, Malvern 7. Unless Benton spends all its time getting ready for Conway.

Little Rock Catholic 12, Russellville 7. Tossup.

Conway 20, Hope 0. Hope to offer valid opposition for state's 2nd AA team.

Jacksonville 14, Searcy 0. Not easy.

Morrilton 26, Mabelvale 0. No guns at Mabelvale.

Camden 13, Smackover 7. The Panthers wrap it up—maybe.

Fairview 12, Nashville 0. Outclassed.

Magnolia 7, Ashdown 0. Ashdown best upset bet of week.

THE STORY: Janet Hamilton, a young widow with two sons to support, decides to resume her career as a teacher following her husband's death. She enrolls in a night course and the instructor is Dr. Jason Whiting. She is attracted to him.

CHAPTER IV

In December, Marian called with a reminder of the party to be held on a Saturday night, two weeks away. Janet, planning on it, said, "I just made an appointment with the hairdresser and called the White Plains cleaners to come pick up my dress. The only thing is — do you mind if I don't go on to the dance afterwards? I'd much rather not."

She accepted Marian's assurance that they wouldn't urge and jolted down the time, surprised to realize how much she did look forward to wearing an evening dress once again, to mingling in a holiday party with old friends she had not had much time to see since school started.

She pushed open the heavy oak door to the Grey's English Tudor-style house and listened to bits of conversation that drifted from the living room while she took off her boots in the polished flagstone hallway. The house, inside, was totally modern, daintily so, a refreshing change from the Early American and Traditional motifs in most homes, including Janet's own.

Janet recognized Lib Lyman's high-pitched voice and Dot Murray's lower one. She turned to the stairs on her right. In the Grey's bedroom she added her coat to the collection on the Hollywood bed, took cigarettes from her small brocade bag and went downstairs.

She paused for a moment at the lowered doors leading off the living room until Marian caught sight of her.

She had lovely fair skin and blue eyes, and her hair was quite a bit blonder than the childhood ringlet her mother had fondly pasted in the family album years ago.

Marian Grey had come to New York from a small "Midwestern town," determined to "become" an actress. She had succeeded to a certain point, but native shrewdness warned her that she had no great theatrical destiny. When she fell in love with and married Gene, she relinquished her career to become a suburban housewife and mother with no lingering residue of regret. She frankly enjoyed her role as wife of prosperous Dr. Eugene Grey.

Marian's most durable asset was a low vibrant voice which carried easily over the babble of her guests as she called to Janet, "Sweetie! You're here, looking divine, and I was horrid enough to think you might chicken out. You know everyone."

Janet liked Marian — liked her earthiness, her blunt honesty and

Debate Series Can't Be Taken Lightly

Television Review
By Fred Danzig
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Will there be a 1964 version of TV's "Great Debates?"

The difficulties that arose in trying to arrange a fifth debate in 1960 indicate trouble ahead. We can't take the debate series for granted in the next campaign.

This year's series, admittedly presented on a trial-and-error basis, was firmly scheduled well in advance of the full-scale campaigning by either Vice President Nixon or Senator Kennedy. The candidates went through the four debate schedule and lived up to commitments already made. Even as the four debates were unfolding, the campaign was acquiring the war of attrition. Polls were taken. Pressures were built up. Hard hitting, non-televized speeches were made and sharp words were exchanged. More and more heat was generated. When it came time to negotiate the extra debate, a debate that had not been called down in September, when the nailing-down was good, less amiable negotiations from the rival camps found it more difficult than ever to maintain an air of politeness and a spirit of give-and-take.

Early Planning Needed

Since we voters need to have the debate format made part of our political fabric, I would suggest that a firm network debate schedule be drawn up well before the 1964 campaign begins. Before the 1964 nominating conventions, too.

The contenders for the nomination should be asked to commit themselves in advance to face-to-face discussions on TV that would have been scheduled beforehand by party and network representatives.

If this is left until after the candidates are chosen and the campaign is in progress, October's "fifth debate" experience in hard hitting, non-televized ing to be as easy to deal with. Are five debates necessary? I don't think so.

Three should do it. I suggest that the first take place early in October. It would last two hours, have a panel of two genuine newsmen and a moderator. After this initial brush, both candidates would weigh the results and prepare for the remaining two encounters.

The closing sessions might be held on the Thursday and Friday nights before election day. In that way they would help wash away the effects of any specious, overstated public utterances and restore the issues and the candidates to a balanced perspective, a more realistic stance. Each of the final debates ought to be a minimum of 90 minutes long. They ought to have a moderator and dispense with the newsmen. By all means let the candidates ask each other the questions. The moderator would be there just to keep the dialogue in productive channels.

The Channel Swim: Two half-hour situation comedy series will

Civilians Take Up Cuban Arms

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro's growing workers militia side look over a heavy weapons section of Cuban's defense today.

The prime minister appealed for volunteers to handle anti-aircraft and military guns, a job normally performed by regular army battalions.

Castro told a concentration of militiamen he needed volunteers under 30 to take over these heavy guns.

Expansion of the militia raised the question of how soon the regular Cuban army would find itself absorbed by citizen-soldiers loyal to Castro.

Mystery Man of Finance Sentenced

WASHINGTON (AP)—Alexander L. Guterman, mystery man of international finance, today was sentenced to 8 to 24 months in prison for acting illegally as an agent for dictator Rafael Trujillo and the Dominican Republic. He also was fined $10,000.

The sentence was imposed by Judge Joseph R. Jackson in U.S. District Court. Jackson denied Guterman's motion to withdraw a plea of no contest he entered last May.

Guterman already is serving a sentence of 4 years and 11 months in the Atlanta Penitentiary on a conviction in New York of conspiring to withhold financial records from the government.

The sentence imposed by Judge Jackson is in addition to the New York sentence.

The no-contest plea, while not admitting guilt, means the defendant chooses not to stand trial and that the judge may dispose of the case.

Guterman and others were accused of accepting $750,000 from Trujillo and the Dominican Republic to broadcast political propaganda in the guise of news. At the time, early in 1959, Guterman was president of the Mutual Broadcasting System, which since has undergone a complete change in ownership and management.

Hal Roach Jr., who was formerly chairman of the board of Mutual, last May entered a plea of no contest to a charge that he failed to cause Mutual to register as a foreign agent. He was fined $500 by Judge Jackson, who told Roach he had been "morally

V-8 Helps Hostess Relax

As hostess for the forthcoming holiday season, we could all benefit greatly if every minute held a million seconds. However, since 60 seconds is the standard, mealtime movements must necessarily be relaxed. There is a way for you to relax... before sitting down to dinner. Into the living room, porch, or family room comes a tray of V-8... accompanied by snacks and relishes... to enliven appetites and create sparkling conversation.

You can serve this nutritious, tasty vegetable juice cocktail... chilled or hot... personalized with an added ingredient. Pour or ladle it in a novel way. Perhaps you'd enjoy using a beverage set for this recipe:

Spiced V-8 Cocktail
1 can (12 fluid ounces) V-8
1/2 teaspoon orange juice
Dash ground cloves
Combine V-8, orange juice, and cloves. Chill. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

For a very cold day this V-8 appetizer wins acclaim when sipped from mugs:

V-8 Whiz
1 can (12 fluid ounces) V-8
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed consommé
1/4 cup finely chopped cucumber
Combine V-8 and cucumber in electric blender; blend until smooth. Pour into saucepan. Add consommé. Heat; simmer a few minutes. Makes 5 to 6 servings.

Fulbright Would Unify Leadership

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright of Arkansas has reiterated his long-held belief that the president and the majority in Congress should be of the same political party.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told a meeting of the San Francisco World Affairs Council Tuesday that "if the country must have Mr. Nixon, then it is the voters' duty to give him Republicans in Congress to work with him."

In the 1940s the Democratic Fulbright "aroused the ire of then President Harry S. Truman, a Democrat, by a similar suggestion that the government would function better with the president and the Congress of the same party."

At a news conference Fulbright said, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate, had "incurred the deep animosity" of several legislators by questioning their loyalty.

He backed up the demand of Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic nominee, that the government release a special report on American prestige abroad.

Fulbright declared that "the administration is wrong in not facing it squarely and frankly and explaining what it means. I don't think it is disastrous. This country is capable of regaining its lost prestige."

No Taverns Even If Vote Goes Wet

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Licenses for on-premise sale of alcoholic beverages will not be issued in Bradley County, even if the county votes wet Nov. 8, Rolla Fitch said today.

Fitch, director of the state Alcohol Beverage Control board, said he made the statement to scotch reports that the board's promise not to issue on-premise licenses would not be honored by him.

"This means there will be no bars and taverns in Bradley County, even if it votes wet," Fitch said.

Fitch resumed his job as ABC director Tuesday after two years as an administrative aide to Gov. Orval E. Faubus. The board's promise to Bradley County was made during his absence.

Fitch said that state law does not provide for local option elections on the question of off-premise sale only, but that the board, by a policy decision, refused to issue on-premise licenses in areas where the people don't want them.

He noted that Fordyce, in Dallas County, which has had legal alcohol for years, has no on-premise outlets.

Bids on Dam to Be Opened on Thursday

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Bids on the major contract for construction of Beaver Dam on White River in northwest Arkansas will be opened by U.S. Engineers here Thursday afternoon.

The job, estimated to cost $20 million, calls for a concrete dam, 1,333 feet long and 223 feet above the stream bed.

Other units include an all-earth embankment 1,242 feet long and 192 feet high plus three smaller all-earth dikes.

The floor control and hydro-electric power dam will create a reservoir of 28,220 acres of normal elevation.

The work to be bid on Thursday will require 3 1/2 years to complete.

An Engineers' spokesman said 350 sets of plans, drawings and specifications had been issued to interested persons.

Beaver will be the fourth major dam on the main stem of the White River. Its overall cost is estimated at $81 million.

Present dams on the White are Bull Shoals and Table Rock, built by the Engineers, and Powersite Dam, built by a private utility and forming Lake Taneycomo in southwest Missouri.

Philadelphia Paper Endorses Nixon

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Bulletin today endorsed Vice President Richard M. Nixon for president.

The Bulletin, largest afternoon newspaper in the country, said that on the campaign's major issues the vice president, a Republican, "offers more rational programs and displays deeper understanding of the means to further them."

The Bulletin supported President Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956. Locally, it has backed Mayor Richardson Dilworth, a Democrat.

The grizzly bear has poor eyesight. To find food, it depends on a highly sensitive nose.

This Monkey Was Hard to Hypnotize

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Bingo, a year-old squirrel monkey, resisted stoutly Tuesday but finally succumbed to hypnosis.

Dr. Irwin Rothman, a Philadelphia psychiatrist, used Bingo to demonstrate his findings on animal hypnosis before the American College of Osteopathic Surgeons.

The kicks and shrieks of the simian gradually subsided as Dr. Rothman crooned and waved a finger before its eyes. Bingo lapsed into slumber.

Then a photographer broke in to ask Dr. Rothman: "Could you move your head a little more to the right?"

Bingo awoke and renewed his struggles. Before being quieted he sank his teeth into a thumb of Dallas Zoo Director Pierre Fontaine, who was holding the monkey.

In discussing animal hypnosis, Dr. Rothman said its use is practical for zoo and circus keepers to restrain their charges during treatment.

Rabbits and snakes are the animals most easily hypnotized, he said, and dogs are the most difficult subjects.

As for birds, Dr. Rothman said there's a sure way — just try "highway hypnosis," which is the term used in the cases of drivers who grow drowsy from watching the center stripe in a roadway.

"Just paint a white line down their backs," he said. "That'll do it every time."

Cuba Loses Bid for a UN Airing

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Cuba and her Communist supporters lost their fight Tuesday night for an immediate U.N. Assembly airing of charges the United States plans an invasion of Cuban soil. But the vote was closer than many expected.

The 99-nation assembly voted 45-29 against the Cuban-Soviet attempt to upset the steering committee's recommendation that the Cuban complaint be sent first to the assembly political committee. Eighteen nations abstained.

The assembly then voted 53-11 with 27 abstentions to follow the steering committee's recommendation.

The balloting came after two days of bitter attacks by Cuba and the entire Soviet bloc, who accused the United States of aggression, subversion, invasion plans and all-around sinister intent.

Cuba's bid for an assembly debate got expected support from the Soviet bloc and Yugoslavia. But to the surprise of many, 18 Asian and African nations rallied behind her demand. They were India, Indonesia, Iraq, Yemen, Saudi Arabia, the United Arab Republic, Libya, Nepal, Ceylon, Burma, Cambodia, Ethiopia, Ghana, Guinea, Nigeria, Morocco, Mali and Afghanistan.

against them sinning."

In the New York case, Guterman, 45 years old, was fined $100,000 in addition to the prior sentence. The U.S. Court of Appeals in New York, however, reduced the fine to $140,000.

Cautions Against Rights Party Vote

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Henry M. Britt of Hot Springs, Republican candidate for governor, said today that a vote for the States Rights Party in Arkansas is a vote for Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy.

Britt told a Little Rock civic club that no votes should be wasted on third parties because the national election is likely to be quite close—so close it could be decided by a few votes in Arkansas.

Most of Britt's speech was devoted to support for the Republican, national ticket of Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge.

Opponent of Alford Loses Court Fight

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Chancellor Murray O. Reed today rejected the contention of L. J. Churchill of Dover that his name should appear on the general election ballot next Tuesday as the Republican opponent of Rep. Dale Alford.

Churchill's attorneys didn't say at once whether they would appeal to the Arkansas Supreme Court in the few days remaining before the election.

Reed agreed with a contention of Ben J. Harrison, chief assistant attorney general, that the state's compulsory primary law had been violated in the attempt to enter Churchill as the Republican nominee.

Willis Townsend of Little Rock, an attorney for Churchill, contended the law had been followed.

He said it provided that if there was a vacancy in a nomination it could be filled at a party convention. He said there was a vacancy and it had been properly filled.

Churchill didn't run in the party primaries last summer, but later was nominated by state and district conventions of the Republicans.

The compulsory primary law was passed several years ago with the obvious purpose of forcing Republicans to nominate at primaries. Previously they had nominated, except for some local offices, by convention or committee action.

Finds $128,396 Has Slipped Away

LONDON (AP)—A German girl who came to England 12 weeks ago found today that $128,396 had slipped from her fingers before she could get hold of the money.

Diepold Ute thought she had won the money betting in a soccer pool. An official of the pools firm called on her to hand her the check.

But when he found she was only 18 he told her she couldn't have the money. Under British law, no one under 21 is allowed to bet on the pools.

"What can I do?" asked Miss Ute in tears. "In Germany my parents would have been given the money in trust for me. It was the first time I had ever filled in a coupon, and it came out right. And now this."

Miss Ute works as a maid. A policeman friend showed her how to fill in the coupon. The winner has to forecast eight soccer games ending in ties.

Impressive Flame Tokay Torte

Handsome, elegant "Tokay Torte" makes an impressive appearance at a company buffet. The beautiful, crisp-textured Flame Tokays add rich color and interest to this delicious dessert.

Rinse 2 cups Tokay grapes; halve and seed. Soften 2 envelopes plain gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water. Combine 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind and 1 cup orange juice; heat to boiling. Add softened gelatin, stirring until dissolved. Blend in 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Cool until slightly thickened. Whip 1 cup heavy cream until stiff. Whip gelatin until fluffy. Fold in whipped cream, 1/2 cup orange sections, 1/4 cup toasted flaked coconut and Tokays. Line sides and bottom of 10-inch spring form pan with 3/4 dozen small lady fingers, placing curved side of lady fingers against pan. Carefully turn gelatin mixture into pan over lady fingers. Chill overnight, or at least 4 hours. Remove sides of pan and cut torte into wedges to serve. Makes 8 to 12 servings.

Fact Stands, All Isn't as It Was

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Into the debate on what to call the present business situation marches a new term today—moderate downturn.

Its sponsor, the First National City Bank of New York, thinks the argument, now political, over whether the label should be readjustment or recession is unimportant since "the slackening is mild."

Two more official reports from government sources this week merely add to the statistical story that isn't as it once was.

These are the Department of Commerce tally of inventories—off for the third month in a row, almost entirely at the manufacturers' level; and the Federal Reserve Board survey of installment credit, which show that in September as in August the monthly increase in this bulwark of the economy was the lowest for any month since November 1959, when the nation was starting its hop back from the 1957-58 recession. (In those days none questioned the term, although its importance was.)

Even with the slowdown since June, the total of on-the-cuff debt has risen to a record $42.1 billion. This slowdown has been cited as one explanation for the rise in savings in recent months—both in total figures and as a percentage of personal income after taxes.

The inventory cut of $200 million in manufacturers' stocks after Labor Day could reflect the continued lag in the placing of new orders, but many see most of the inventory drop as due to the declining value of stocks on hand rather than to a smaller physical volume.

When manufacturers start rebuilding stocks we'll know that the moderate downturn is definitely over, the experts tell us. Wholesalers' stocks remained unchanged and retailers' stocks rose $100 million in the month as merchants got ready for expected fall and yuletide sales.

Retail sales softened although they had been expected to rise after Labor Day. Housing starts took a big dip. Here, too, optimists had counted on a series of steps to ease credit terms and costs and make more investment funds available to start home building back up again.

Between July and September, industrial production fell 2.5 per cent. The slip seems to have continued through October.

But there are many blessings to be counted, too.

Retail sales are still high by almost any yardstick. Consumer spending has increased for many months not found in stores.

The total of corporate profits in the July-September quarter was over the same 1959 period, although many companies and industries showed declines. Profits in general were off from the second quarter of this year, which in turn was down 12 per cent from the record earnings of the 1958 April-June quarter.

Unemployment insurance and pension benefits helped offset the drop in many factory payrolls to keep total personal income high.

When the pedestal for the Statue of Liberty was completed in 1886, jubilant workmen threw into the mortar a collection of silver coins from their own pockets.

Jap Assassin Kills Himself

TOKYO, Thursday (AP)—The youthful assassin of Socialist leader Inejiro Asanuma has killed himself, court authorities reported today.

They said Otoyama Yamaguchi, 17, took his life by hanging Wednesday night. He was facing prosecution on murder charges that could bring him a maximum of a life sentence.

The Tokyo prosecutor had recommended Wednesday that the assassin be tried in Criminal Court.

The prosecutor referred the case to the Family Court, as required by law for prisoners under 18. But officials of the prosecutor's office expressed confidence the case would be sent to the Court.

ALC Backing Up on Pay Raise Stand

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Legislative Council apparently is retreating from an earlier stand against pay increases.

The council Tuesday approved raises for 59 jobs in six states agencies, suggested in most instances by Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

These included 22 in the Labor Department, four in the Livestock Sanitary Board and Brucellosis Control Office, two in the mine inspector's office, 15 at the white Girls Training School and 16 in the Veterans Service Office.

For a time last week the council indicated it might not follow Faubus' recommendations and would hold out against higher salaries, particularly for department heads.

Labor Commissioner Clarence R. Thornbrough told the council his department would need four to six more employees than the 22 it already has if the minimum wage and overtime measure, Initiated Act No. 1, should be adopted next Tuesday.

The Labor Department would be charged with enforcement of the act.

Mother of Iran Prince Leaves Bed

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Queen Farah got out of bed today for the first time since giving birth to Iran's crown prince Monday. The shah was reported planning his own coronation for next year, since he now has an heir to assure the line of succession to Iran's ancient Peacock Throne.

Informed sources said the monarch, 42, told a Cabinet meeting: "Now that my heir is born, the way is open for my coronation." This would mean he will mount the throne for the first time in his 19-year reign. He had refused to do so until he had a male heir who could legally take his place.

He divorced two previous wives for not producing one.

"The queen and the baby now are in perfect condition," said Farah's American-trained physician, Jahanshah Saleh. He examined the mother and child at noon.

Saleh said the queen, 23, could return to the palace Friday at the earliest.

Hospital Gets Remains of Memphis Park

MEMPHIS, (AP) — A Baptist hospital has been given possession of what remains of the burned-out home of the Memphis Chicks.

Nat Buring, owner of the Memphis Baseball Club, Inc., said an out-of-court settlement of a chancery suit had been reached between the hospital and him.

The hospital plans to build an eight-story doctors' office building and a 150-bed research hospital on the site, located in the City Medical Center.

The hospital purchased the property last May shortly after a fire raged through the park and adjoining buildings. The sale price was $1,250,000.

Free use of the property was hindered, however, by a seven-year lease and a 10-year option held by Buring, owner of the team that preceded the Memphis Chicks Inc., as the city's Southern Association entry.

During said the settlement provided for financial remuneration to the club for giving up the lease and option. An undisclosed sum is to be paid by the hospital, he said.

Officials to Ask Germans for More Aid

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson and Undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon will visit West Germany later this month to urge increased German aid to underdeveloped areas.

This was announced today by the Treasury, which has long felt that prospering West Germany should take a greater part in the foreign aid burden now borne by the United States.

A Treasury spokesman said arrangements for the Anderson-Dillon trip were made several weeks ago.

The U.S. foreign aid program is a major contributing factor to the persistent deficit in the United States balance of international payments. This deficit has caused a steady outflow of gold which, in turn, was one of the principal causes of a recent wild speculation in international gold markets.

Reports from Bonn that President Eisenhower has written Chancellor Konrad Adenauer that the United States may have to cut its troop strength in Germany brought denial of any such plans by informed authorities here.

These sources said the United States has no intention of cutting back on armed strength in Germany. However, they said some consideration is being given to means of reducing expenses related to dependents and other support items for the troops in Germany.

Town for Older Folks Planned

BERRYVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The older folks will have their own town near here if a group of planners have their way.

Refuses to Oust Suit Against U.S.

LITTLE ROCK, (AP) — U. S. District Judge Gordon B. Young has refused to dismiss a $5,000 suit filed against the federal government by Paul G. Downs of Bond, Del. Lae, Wis., who was cut on the arm by a bayonet during the 1957 integration crisis.

Young Tuesday denied a motion by U.S. Atty. Gen. Clegg to dismiss the suit.

Downs, a slacksman, said he was cut by a bayonet wielded by one of the federal paratroopers sent to enforce desegregation of Central High School here in 1957.

Kidnaper Is Captured at Laredo, Tex.

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — Curtis Lee Jones, 30, Arkansas ex-convict accused of murder, rape and kidnapping, surrendered without a struggle Tuesday after the stolen horse on which he was attempting to escape stumbled and fell.

Jones, object of an intensive week-long manhunt, was captured on the Callahan ranch, 20 miles north of Laredo.

He threw up his hands after a member of a posse fired a shotgun blast over his head.

The shotgun was fired by state highway patrolman Jack Carpenter, one of four officers summoned to the ranch after being notified that Jones had forced a woman living there to "feed him."

"I was coming in to give myself up," Jones later told Laredo newspaperman John Costello of radio station KVO. "I thought they were going to kill me. If he (Carpenter) hadn't shot at me I would have surrendered anyhow."

The capture ended a giant manhunt started six days ago after Jones kidnaped his 21-year-old cousin and her male companion in Fort Worth, tried to strangle the man with a rope and raped the young woman.

He then kidnaped an expectant mother and her baby daughter from a rural home west of Fort Worth. The young mother and child were freed unharmed in San Antonio nine hours later.

The manhunt switched to Laredo Monday when Jones abducted a woman tavern owner and one of her employees in San Antonio, drove southward toward the Mexican border and freed the pair outside Laredo.

Jones will be turned over to authorities at Texarkana, Tex., where he is charged with the murder of ex-convict Doyle Jackson, 45.

Spread-a-Burgers Mean Dinner in Minutes

Everyone who plans menus knows that good sandwiches rate high as food favorites. Both youngsters and oldsters shout their praises. The family won't object at all... next time you've had a busy day... to an excitingly different sandwich supper.

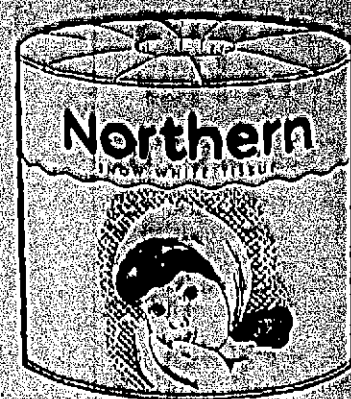

Here's a new sandwich idea that is sure to score a hit... spread-a-burgers. Simple to prepare... just mix chicken (canned or left over), ground beef, or tuna with a can of condensed soup, and seasonings, spread on toasted buns and broil. The combinations are many, the savings in the food budget mount, too. And, the kitchen time saved is another enviable asset.

The most natural menu accompaniment for Chicken Spread-a-Burgers, made with condensed cream of chicken, is jellied cranberry sauce. Make the November busy day menu complete with an easy dessert... instant vanilla pudding topped with canned mandarin oranges... and hot coffee for adults; milk for the children.

Chicken Spread-a-Burgers
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 cup diced cooked chicken
1 cup thinly sliced celery
1/2 cup sliced water chestnuts
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 teaspoon soy sauce
1 frankfurter bun, split and toasted
Combine soup, chicken, celery, water chestnuts, onion, and soy sauce. Spread mixture evenly over bun halves; cover edges completely. Broil about 4 inches from heat until hot and bubbly, about 7 minutes. Makes 4 open-face

Woman Says She Shot Her Officer-Lover

MOUNTAIN HOME, Ark. (AP)—Mrs. Naomi Shinn testified today that she shot her policeman-lover as he advanced on her with a knife, threatening to kill her, last June.

Mrs. Shinn, a 57-year-old Kansas City woman, took the witness stand in her own defense on the third day of her first degree murder trial in Baxter Circuit Court.

The woman said Francis Holtman, 47, also of Kansas City, beat her and started toward her with a hunting knife after they quarreled.

She said she shot him once and then three more times as he advanced on her again.

Mrs. Shinn testified that she and Holtman got into an argument on the morning after they arrived here for a weekend at a fishing resort.

"I felt like it was my life or his," she testified, "I was sure he was going to kill me. There was no way to get away."

Mrs. Shinn said she lost her senses after the shots and remembered nothing until she had driven 50 miles to near Harrison.

Two defense witnesses, one a doctor, testified earlier today that Mrs. Shinn was bruised and appeared to have been beaten on the day of the slaying.

Mrs. Shinn testified she and Holtman had been lovers since 1950.

She said her husband, William Shinn of Kansas City, learned of the relationship in 1955, but that he did not know it had continued after that.

Police officers, testifying for the prosecution, said Tuesday that Mrs. Shinn had admitted firing the shots which killed Holtman.

MOUNTAIN HOME, Ark. (AP)—Two defense witnesses testified today that Mrs. Naomi Shinn, 47, of Kansas City, was bruised and appeared to have been beaten on the day an off-duty Kansas City policeman was killed near here.

Ray Graff, a photographer, and Dr. F. W. Chambers testified Mrs. Shinn had bruises on her back and legs.

Pictures of the bruises, taken by Graff, were introduced into evidence as the defense opened its presentation.

The prosecution rested shortly after the trial opened its third day this morning.

Mrs. Shinn is charged with first degree murder.

British Try to Avert Cry About Base

By RAYMOND E. PALMER
LONDON (AP)—The British government launched a public relations campaign today in an effort to avert an outcry against the basing of U.S. nuclear missile submarines in Scotland.

As the first voices of protest were raised, the government invited leading officials of 12 towns and counties in the Clyde area to a meeting at Greenock Thursday to discuss the base agreement. The invitations were sent out by John MacLay, secretary of state for Scotland.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan told the House of Commons Tuesday that Holy Loch, the Clyde yachting center 30 miles from Glasgow, would become a Polaris submarine base next February.

A submarine tender, and eventually a floating dock, along with 1,500 U.S. navy personnel will be stationed there to service submarines that can fire the 1,200-to-1,500-mile range Polaris missile from under water.

Macmillan recognized the risk of objections.

"But on reflection," he said, "I hope the House will feel that this new arrangement does not add to the risks to which we are all inevitably exposed in this nuclear age."

Moscow radio warned that the Polaris base would be the target for "an inevitable retaliatory blow" if used for aggression.

Labor members of Commons at once attacked the arrangement, saying the people of Scotland would resent exposure to destruction.

The independent London Times said, however, that the submarine deterrent is "a much less hair-trigger business than the land-based rocket and would help to remove some American anxieties about the balance of power."

Britain already is host to U.S. rocket bases.

Favors Kennedy

TOKYO (AP)—The skipper of the Japanese destroyer that sank Sen. John F. Kennedy's World War II torpedo boat said today he hopes Kennedy wins the U.S. presidency.

"I personally hope that this youthful brilliant man—the man I might have killed—may be honored with the presidency," Kohei Hatanaka wrote in a five-column account of his wartime experiences published in the English-language edition of the newspaper "Yomiuri".
